GENERAL AND REVENUE SECRETARIAT.

Serial Nos. 24, 25

Part B for March 1938.

SUBJECT.

Representation of the 19 Banavara Uru Residents Protesting against a transfer to the Revenue Department.

WD 0295—GPB—22,500—18-8-37

Serial No.

Letter No. 1136/Es dated 14.2.1938 from the Comptroller to Govt. forwarding for favourable Consideration of Govt. a copy of representation of Mr. D. Basavaraj ms, Accts Probationer, praying for a transfer to the Rev. Deptt.

Mr. D. Basavaraj ms, Ba. LL.B., was appointed Probationer and was assigned to the Accounts Department in G.O. No. 3023-26 dated 10.6.1937. He reported himself for duty in the Comptroller's office on 14.6.1937 and he has been allocated to the Insurance office.

2. He seems to have completed the course of preliminary training for 8 eight months detailed on page 2 of the Comptroller's letter dated 29.6.1937 and he now prays for a transfer to the Revenue Department. The Comptroller has forwarded the representation of Mr. Basavaraj ms for "favourable Consideration".

3. [It may be noted in this connection that the Comptroller suggested in June 1937 the transfer of Mr. B ms to the Cooperative Deptt and the transfer of Mr. S.T. Shivaswamy to the Accts Deptt. The change was not viewed with favour.]

7. The point for orders in this file is the request of Mr. Basavaraj urs, Accounts Probationer, for his transfer to the Revenue Department. It has been the accepted policy of Govt. to have a fair representation of different Communities in the several Departments. Excepting Mr. M. Viraraja who is a C.S. officer, ~~us~~ there are no ursu officers in the Subordinate Accounts Service ~~or~~ or in the higher ranks of the Accounts Department. There ~~are none~~ ~~is no one~~ ~~in the~~ member of ursu Community officers in the Revenue Department.

I cannot appreciate the spirit underlying the representation. The young man was thankful for having been appointed as a probationer. Now he seems to think that it is open to him to choose the Dept in which he should be employed. I do not think such an attitude is creditable to the applicant. many another young urs graduate would be more than thankful if he can secure a probationer's post. Mr Basavaraj urs may be told that his request cannot be complied with and that he should seek his prospects in the Accounts Dept where there are good chances for doing well.
